

Broccoli and Cauliflower....Oh, My...

8 cups of broccoli and cauliflower broken in small pieces

1 cup of green or/and red seedless grapes, halved

½ lb. of bacon, cooked well and crumbled

1 cup celery sliced-less than ¼ inch thick

2 oz. slivered almond, sautéed in butter till golden

1 bunch of green onions sliced including the greens

Dressing:

½ cup sugar

1 cup mayonnaise

A few drops of red or green Tabasco (my son substituted horseradish)

1 Tablespoon vinegar

With a spoon, blend the dressing ingredients: let rest so the sugar dissolves...blend again

Combine the 6 ingredients; tossing well; add the dressing and toss again coating so no clumps of dressing remains. Chill several hours or overnight. We served ours with a few chow mien noodles on top...beautiful
