

Upcoming Workshop for 2017

Please note the following dates and times are tentative and subject to change. We recommend calling ahead to verify dates and times as workshops draw nearer at mcdougalsfarm.com. CSA members will be contacted by email. You can contact us at mcdougalsfarmllc@gmail.com or 715-627-4418.

March 18th, Saturday at 1pm- Children's Workshop Hoot, Hoot, Don't Pollute!....be clever instead. What do you get when you add a little cleverness, soil and seeds to a revamped empty plastic liter bottle? An impressive self-watering growing system for flowers or tomatoes. This is the perfect little set up to make successful, proud little growers that may see their creation bloom by Mother's Day. McDougal's Farm will also be welcoming Elise Schuler from the Raptor Education Group. Elise will be bringing in live owls of all sizes! She'll explain why we absolutely love them here on the farm and what good little recyclers they are as well. Each child is asked to bring an empty plastic liter bottle (clear or green), we'll supply the rest. Class held in our big sunny greenhouse. Space is limited, so please call ahead ... cost $8. w/adult.

May 12th-14th, Friday thru Sunday 8:00am-5:00pm- McDougal's Farm Greenhouse opens for sales. Open to the public for two- 3 day weekends only. Filled with many earthy mossy delights, rusty accents, hanging baskets and organically grown garden transplants and herbs...many of them heirloom. Love nature? Looking for unique? You will find it here, located at W10835 Bluebell Rd. Deerbrook Wi. Just 5 minutes N on Hwy 45 from Antigo to Cty Rd. B., turn west and then straight onto Bluebell Rd...see you in a mile and a half on the left.

May 13th, Saturday at 6pm, Build Your Own Herb

Garden Enjoy a fresh brewed cup of tea (or a complimentary Mothers Day eve glass of wine) as we go around the large selection of herbs and talk briefly about some of the medicinal and culinary uses of herbs and introduce you to some new ones. Then you will be free to design your own herb container garden. Bring your own container, we will have a few on hand. Cost will be determined according to your container size and herb selection. Space is limited. Please call ahead

May 14th, Sunday at 1:30, Sharing tricks of the trade...calling all gardeners! Ever wonder how we do things here on the farm? How we stay ahead of weeds without herbicides? or ahead of the bugs or avoid late blight? What's a nematode? Did you ever wonder how we plant things to keep a constant crop coming in? or how we eat fresh spinach all winter long without using a hoop house? We didn't always know the answer to these questions, many we learned the hard way. But you don't have to. Come and learn from our experience and mistakes for free. Have something you found that works? We would love to learn from you as well. Under the tent. Cost is free-call ahead 715-627-4418

May 19th-21st, Friday thru Sunday 8am to 5pm- McDougal's Farm Greenhouse open for sales. Our second weekend open to the public, good deals on selected remaining annuals. Always adding new plantings. Come see us for unique.

May 21st Sunday 1:30pm, "Gifts of the Earth". Join Laurie Michlig, doTERRA Wellness Advocate, to learn how you can incorporate essential oils in your daily lifestyle. Emerging clinical research shows the power of pure essential oils in fighting a wide range of health issues in people of all ages. This introductory class will explore the potential benefits essential oils hold for you by teaching you what essential oils are, how they are used, and why they are working for millions of people around the world. Cost $5.00. Under the Tent

May 27th 8am-2pm, Saturday only- McDougal's Farm Greenhouse open for sales...maybe There is a possibility (depending on inventory at the time) we may still open this final day for the convenience of our Memorial Day weekend planters. Please call ahead to double check 715-627-4418. You may not have all the choices you would opening weekend, but vegetables transplants and good deals can always be found.

We had to do a lot of flip flopping and time changes. Sorry for any inconvenience. Could you also change any information on the greenhouse page accordingly as all the gh dates changed as well. They are all listed above. Don't want any ornry elderly ladies this year:)
Peace and thanks
Maydene