It's Winter share time!! Pick up on farm next week

For thinking we were ahead of the game this fall, we certainly ended up behind somehow. We have been working in rain and snowflakes this week, washing, weighing and bagging... and we think we are ready to push out those winter shares... or will be by next Thursday:) Below are the 2017 Winter share details. For those of you who are unfamiliar with Winter shares, it is a onetime pick up from the farm with bulk quantities of veggies. The bulk of Winter Shares are varieties that store well. The number of winter shares are limited but plenty available if you want to get in. If you have contacted us already and your name is on the list, rest assured we have one reserved for you and will be contacting you in regards to size choice if you have not let us know already. The details below will help you chose what size and day of pick up you wish. Let us know by email or phone (715-627-4418) before next week Monday evening (Nov., 6th). Shares will be filled in the order they come in, until unavailable. The Winter shares are our most economical package and will be distributed next Thursday and Friday, November 9th and 10th. Our odds and ends will be available on Saturday (11/11) 9am to 2 pm. We call this our Pick and Choose Day. This is nice for people with limited storing space or ones who may like to just pick and choose instead. This year we are looking at an ample amount of carrots, potatoes, beets, rutabagas and cabbage. Pie pumpkins, squash, red cabbage, kale, golden beets, peppers and other goodies like our raw honey and McDougal's Farm personal products like lip balm and moisturizers will also be available. Our broccoli and romaine didn't make size in time, but maybe we can surprise you in January. All vegetable pickups will be located in our warm packing shed located on the South end of the pole barn. There will be signs and it will be well lit....we'll make sure you find us:)

So if interested in our winter share (Do not need to be a CSA member to purchase):

- Email or call 715-627-4418 before Monday (11/6) evening
- Let us know what size: small or large?
- What day will you be picking up? (Thursday or Friday)...or make an appointment
- Don't worry about payment until you get here. We accept check (payable to McDougal's Farm) or cash.
- Bring boxes to haul away your hoard:)
- Enjoy your winter abundance!

Hours Open for Winter Share pick up
